Willie & Max Black Jack Series Traditional Bags

New Style of Willie & Max Bags for 2009

The Black Jack series is new to the Willie & Max line for 2009. The bags have a clean, smooth look and are constructed using rich black synthetic leather, a textured black synthetic leather accent panel and black hardware accents. The saddlebags feature a universal throwover system with a zip off yoke and quick release buckles.

Available now, the line consists of two styles of saddlebags: compact slant and large, along with a tour trunk, sissy bar bag and tool pouch. All have quick release buckles for ease of use and have plastic reinforcing for shape retention and added stability.

Manufacturers suggested retail price (MSRP) for the new Black Jack Series bags starts at $60.50 for the tool pouch and up to $209.95 for the large slant saddlebags. Check them out today at www.willieandmax.com
